THE EXTENSION OF STREETS

Bills Before Congress Discussed by Mount Pleasant Citizens' Association.

Matter of Assessing Benefits Under Provisions of Proposed Legislation -The Street Railways.

The regular monthly meeting of the Mount Pleasant Citizens' Association was held last evening at the Hotel Stratferd. 14th street near Park, Mr. H. H. Twombly the president of the organization, presiding, and Mr. F. L. Averill acting as recording secretary, in the absence of Mr. William Montgomery. The latter tendered his resignation of the office because of business engagements, and Mr. Averill was unani mously chosen as his successor. After Mr. William H. Crowell had been elected a member of the association Mr. Donald McPherson moved that the bills re-cently introduced in Congress for the extension of 17th street northward from Flortension of Lith street northward from Fior-ida avenue be approved, and that the asso-clation request the District Commissioners to recommend favorable action thereon and ase every effort to secure their enactment. The resolution also suggested that a street railroad should be run on the thoroughfare railroad should be run on the thoroughfare when extended.

Mr. Abram Fry seconded the motion, moving that the matter be referred to a special committee of three, with directions to urge the passage of the bills. Mr. A. B. Chatfield, however, thought the railroad feature of the resolution should be omitted. He referred to the proposed extension of the Metropolitan railroad from 18th street along Columbia road to 16th street, and thence northward to Park, expressing a preference for such a route.

Mr. C. C. Lancaster, a member of the Meridian Hill and Lanier Heights Citizens' Association, being introduced, spoke in favor of the bills, stating that he has good reason to believe that Congress will enact them if the two specializations.

In his opinion, the failure to extend 17th street his opinion, the failure to extend 17th street has greatly retarded the growth and progress of the section, and has resulted very disastrously to property interests therein.

Mr. Fry's motion finally prevailed, the committee being instructed to revise the resolution offered by Mr. McPherson in accordance with the suggestion of Mr. Chatfield. Messrs. McPherson, Fry and T. A. Harding were named as the special committee.

Mr. E. B. Townsend stated that the com-

nittee appointed about a year ago at a meeting of citizens of the section to secure the extension of 16th street has been busily engaged in the matter for a month. terday, he said, the committee had a conference with a subcommittee of the Senate District committee, the Commissioners and the attorney for the District, with the result that gratifying progress was made. He explained that the citizens committee has presented to the Commissioners a bill so amending the original act as to enable them to secure, by condemnation, those parcels of land the owners of which have either refused or have been unable to dedicate. The Commissioners have approved the amendatory bill, and Mr. Townsend said he is confident the original act will soon be so amended by Congress as to enable the Commissioners to shortly institute the proceedings necessary to secure the symptomic possible the commissioners or shortly institute the proceedings necessary to secure erday, he said, the committee had a con-

He also said he is encouraged to believe that the whole question of the assessment of benefits will be left to the judgment of the fury, instead of confining it to consideration of a strip of 250 feet of ground. He expressed the opinion that the proposed extension of 17th street will be provided for, but doubted whether the Metropolitan railroad will extend its line thereon.

NEW NATIONAL THEATER - The comter with Olga Nethersole next week nummuch has been said of the surpassing success of the attraction itself that a little gossip becomes interesting. She travels gossip becomes interesting. She travels with an immense amount of scenery for "Sapho," which takes at least four of the largest baggage cars which can be supplied for her. The company is always cozily housed on the cars, for Nethersole will have its members enjoy all the luxuries that are possible on the railway. Besides the four baggage cars there are four sleepers and the same number of drawing-room cars. baggage cars there are four sleepers and the same number of drawing-room cars, Miss Nethersole has a luxurious state room, in which she entertains a very happy family. There are her brother, Louis Nethersole; her director, Mr. Marcus R. Mayer; her companion, two maids, a stenographer and secretary, besides a poll parrot, a fox terrier and numerous other pets. The coming of "Sapho" to this city is an event of treble interest. The novel was written by Daudet, the adaptation was made by Mr. Ciyde Fitch and the actress is Nethersole. STRAKOSCH OPERA CO.—The Strakosch Opera Company, under the direction of Edgar Strakosch & Co., after a successful season of nine weeks' opera at Mustic Hall in Baltimore, will give a brief season of one week's, opera at Lafayette Square Opera House. The company is said to have a large array of artists, an excellent chorus, and all the accessories for grand and comic opera 'masterworks. It will open next Monday evening in a double bill consisting of Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rustleana" and Gilbert & Sullivan's "H. M. S. Pinafore." Both operas are given entire on the opening night, and also on Friday evening, January 19. BALTIMORE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.—The second concert of the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra will take place at the National Theater tomorrow afternoon. This organization created a very favorable impression at its first concert, and its conductor. Mr. Ross Jungnickel, was at once recognized as a competent conductor. Tomorrow the soloist will be Alex Petschnikoff, the Russian violinist, who has already gained high praise for his work in this country. His style is said to be brilliant, his technique renarkable and his personal magnetism great. With these qualities and a virtuosity which compasses all difficulties he should command the attention of all lovers of violin playing. The program arrenged by Mr. Jungnickel is as follows:

Lasser, Festival Overture, opus 51, first time in Washington; Schubert, Unfinished Symphony in B minor, No. 8; Wieniawski, Violin Concerte in D minor, opus 22; Rubinstein, Kamennoi-Ostrow (cloister scene), opus 10, adapted for orchestra by Ross Junknickel, first time; Massenet, Suite, No.

CHING LING FOO.—The advent of Ching Ling Foo, the great Chinese magician, at the New Grand next week is not only important in itself, but interesting because he will appear on the first anniversary of polite vaudeville at that theater. Manager Chase's enterprise has brought permanent prosperity, and Monday night next the anniversary will be made memorable to his patrons by the presentation to each of a handsome and useful souventr. Aside from the Keith theater, in which Ching made his initial appearance, the New Grand is the only play house in this country so far to engage this extraordinary artist, at a cost of a little more than $1.000 for the week. Ching is prince conjurer to the Emperor of China, and is a mandarin in his own right. At the Chinese court he is a frequent entertainer. His feats of magic are exasperatingly simple. One moment he smiles at the audience, making gestures to call attention to his rolled-up sleeves, and the fact that there is nothing beneath bis call attention to his rolled-up sleeves, and the fact that there is nothing beneath his Chinese robes; the next instant he waves a gaily decorated bit of silk and from beneath chinese robes; the next instant he waves a gally decorated bit of silk and from beneath its folds produces globes containing gold-iish. 75-pound jars or little girls, at will. None of Ching Ling Foo's tricks is more wonderful than the simple one he does before the curtain with a top and a bit of string. His control of the top is nothing short of marvelous. His flower-like little daughter, Chee Tal, captivates all with her cunning sweetness and her "coon" songs in "pidgin English." Ching is assisted also by his wife, with the tiny feet typical of the Chinese lady, and several male conjurers of comic propensities. Other acts on the bill are Louis Martinetti and Lillie Sutherland in their humorous specialty; Anna Whitney, the favorite monologist; Lavender and Thompson in the amusing sketch, "The Real Artist;" Mile, Salina, the danseuse; Vernon, the great ventriloquest, and the biograph pictures.

KERNAN'S LYCEUM THEATER.-Commencing Monday, for one week, at the Lyceum, Harry Bryant's "Australian Burlesquers" will be the attraction, when a program of unusual merit will be given. In the cilo are Bryant and Yale, in a new sketch, entitled "Just Married;" the Quincy sketch, entitled "Just Married," the Quincy Sisters, in character songs and dances; Charlie Banks in "Nothing to Arbitrate;" Edna Urline, in a budget of new and popular songs; the metropolitan success, Sam Collins, Minnie Cline and Rastus; the masters of juggling. World, Kennedy and Quatielli; and Paris' latest sensation. Nelson, Glinseretti and Demonio, in their pantomimle farce, "Frolles in a Cafe Chantante." The close to this bill is a burlesque, "Fun in a Soubrettes' Art Gallery, introducing Harry C. Bryant. Returns of the Choynski-McCoy fight will be read from the stage Friday night.

Burton Holmes delved yesterday in his third lecture of the season, "Round About Paris." he audience was a large one, almost empletely filling the Columbia Theater, and completely filling the Columbia Theater, and seemingly thoroughly appreciated all that was said. The subject was most timely on account of the forthcoming exposition, and very properly Mr. Holmes began his journey through Paris at the fast rising city within the exposition inclosure. Mr. Holmes did not dwell upon the general aspect of Paris or its celebrated sights, which all travelers have seen or of which most persons have read. With a thorough knowledge of the city he talked of the scenes and people to be met in the more obscure, but none the less interesting portions of the great city. The lecture was novel and exceptionally entertaining. A number of beautifully colored stereoption views were KNEISEL QUARTET.—The second concert of this noted organization will be given on Tuesday afternoon next at the Hotel Raleigh. This is the thirty-fourth concert of the quartet in Washington, and the attendance during the past eight years has been steadily increasing from the time when the first concert was given in a private house to an audience of sixty until the last, when the spacious banquet hall of the Hotel Raleigh was comp'etely filled. The program includes a string quartet of Schumann, a piano quartet of Brahms and a terzetto of Dvorak. The last is a work which the composer began for his children, but his interest so increased in writing that he enlarged its scope and completed it as a he enlarged its scope and completed it as a work for mature hearers. It is for two vloifns and viola, an unusual combination, and is pronounced by the critics of New York and Boston to be of unusual interest. The quartet will be assisted by Mr. L. Breitner of Paris, a planist of much distinction.

HALEY'S BAND CONCERTS—Haley's band, under the direction of Will A. Haley, will begin its annual season next Sunday evening at the Columbia Theater. These concerts have proved to be very enjoyable in the past, and Mr. Haley promises that he will endeavor to make them more so during the coming season. Band concerts in Washington have always proved to be a potent magnet for drawing large houses and the already large sale of season tickets, as well as single tickets, argues well for a very successful season of concert for Mr. Haley and his band. The soloists for the first concert are to be Miss Blanche Wood, soprano, and Miss Nellie Robinson, pianist, from the Conservatory of Music, Philadelphia, who is to make her debut before a Washington audience at this concert. The prices are to be the same popular ones that have always been the scale for these concerts.
